"FATHER" OF EL PASO SHRINE DIES

George Hunter, "father" of the El Paso Shrine, died at the home of his daughter, Mrs. Fred Akard, in Richmond Terrace at 1:30 p. m. Tuesday.

Mr. Hunter, or "Uncle George," as he was known to all of the Texas Shrines, was recorder of the Dallas temple at Dallas for many years. He came here with George Green, also of Dallas, who died recently, and with A. A. Smith, of El Paso, organized the El Paso Shrine in 1905. He returned here frequently to visit El Paso and, when his daughter came here to live, he made his home with them in Richmond Terrace for the past 18 months.

His death was caused by a complication of diseases resulting from old age as Mr. Hunter was 75 years old at the time of his death. He has been a resident of Dallas for the past 35 years, having been a manufacturer's agent there for a number of years until he devoted a greater part of his time to the Shrine work. He was born in Richmond, Va.

The body was taken to Dallas Tuesday morning on the Texas & Pacific and the funeral will be held there under the auspices of the Dallas Masonic lodge. Dr. Felix Miller, representing the El Paso Scottish Rite, accompanied the funeral party as far as Van Horn, W. H. McCullough, recorder of El Maids Shrine, represented the local Shrine at the station. The arrangements here were made by Nagley & Kester.

Aeroplane Sailing
Over Fort Bliss*FLYER TAKES 2800
FEET ABOVE FORT*Flyer Takes Joy Ride Above
Fort Bliss and Escapes
From Warm Weather.

A little gliding spot 2500 feet in the air above the city caused some excitement early Tuesday morning among El Pasoans who were awake at 5 o'clock.

The spot moved in great circles and seemed like a small silver meteor gliding in the sun.

For half an hour it circled above the northeastern section of the city. Finally it began to descend to the ground near Fort Bliss and as it approached the earth, interested spectators saw that it was an airplane. When it touched earth, Parman Smith, the Los Angeles aviator, stepped from it and announced to a small group of soldiers and civilians who had arisen early to watch the flight that the "bird" was fine.

The Wright biplane in which Smith enjoyed the morning air is the machine in which he will on July fourth and fifth as the star attraction of the two-day aviation meet, auto racing, athletic meet, military maneuvers, Shrine patrol drill and band concert at Washington park under the management of the Berger Aviation company. The young aviator rose from the earth about 6 o'clock and was in the air 30 minutes, reaching an altitude of 2800 feet. The start was made from the open plain adjoining the battery camp at Fort Bliss. The machine is painted a bright silver.

The Municipal band, led by J. G. Miller, has been engaged by Mr. Berger to play during the program at the park. There are 30 musicians in the organization.

Phoenix, Ariz., June 28.—"That story to the effect that the water bottle used in the Roosevelt reservoir, used in the christening of the shipwrecked sailors, did not break, is a charged and untrue story," said George W. STOP! CALOMEL IS QUICKSILVER*It's mercury! Attacks the bones, salivates and makes you sick.

There's no reason why a person should take sickening, salivating calomel when 50 cents buys a large bottle of Dodson's Liver Tonic—a perfect substitute for calomel.

pleasant, vegetable liquid which will start your bowels just as surely as calomel, but it doesn't make you sick and can not salivate.

Children and grown folks can take Dodson's Liver Tonic, because it is perfectly harmless.

Calomel is a dangerous drug. It is mercury and attacks your bones. Take a dose of nasty calomel today and you will feel weak, sick and nauseated tomorrow. Don't lose a day's work. Take a spoonful of Dodson's Liver Tonic instead and you will wake up feeling great. No more biliousness, constipation, sluggishness, headache, coated tongue or sour stomach. Your drug-gist says if you don't feel better on Dodson's Liver Tonic, he'll give you a dollar.

Calomel's money is waiting for you.—Advertisement.
